

Are You a Tortoise or a Hare?

Circle the items that best describe you to find out if you're a tortoise or a hare!
 Count your responses when you're done—mostly As means you're more like Hare and mostly Bs means you're more like Tortoise, but no matter what, the best way to be is YOU!

A. Wake up early	B. Sleep in late
A. Get dressed quickly	B. Stay in your pajamas all day
A. Leave your bed messy	B. Make your bed neatly
A. Eat as fast as you can—playtime awaits!	B. Enjoy every bite—food is delicious!
A. Play with all your toys and games in one day	B. Play with one toy or game for a while
A. Ride your bike as fast as you can	B. Ride your bike slowly to look at everything around you
A. Have a weekend full of activities	B. Have a lazy weekend at home
A. Read a lot of different books	B. Read the same book again and again

Collect all the Feel-Good Fairy Tales

TORTOISE AND HARE

by Susan Verde • illustrated by Jay Fleck